Line Cleared For 'Phone Bride'

Married by transatlantic telephone, Mrs. Howard Anderheide arrived in Boston from Sydney, Australia, to find U. S. Immigration officials waiting with an "out of order" signal. However, by posting a $500 bond under the GI fiancee ruling, the Aussie bride was allowed to enter the U. S. and is shown here with her hubby, a former Air Force captain. A second marriage will be staged at the home of the groom's brother whose residence is in Rochester, New York.

Army Strength To Be Reduced Safety Keynote Of Convention Sessions Today

Several Hundred Thousand Soldiers Will Be Discharged In Few Months

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—(INS)—Hundreds of thousands of army officers and enlisted men headed for civilian life today under the army's newly jacked-up program to dwindle to an all-volunteer basis with quality compensating for quantity.

The war department—encouraged by the army's most successful recruiting campaign in history—announced plans for cutting armed strength to one million 310 thousand military personnel by January 1, 1947. The first of this month there were one million 745 thousand officers and enlisted men in the army.

Million Join Up

Attainment of the army's "make it a million" recruiting goal will be observed this afternoon during brief ceremonies in Secretary of War Patterson's office. Cpl. Irving T. Bennett, Jr., 112 St. John's road, Pa News notes that the green arrow on the traffic light on the southern end of the public square is being disregarded quite generally by local motorists these days. When one motorist does wait for the arrow to appear, motorists behind him keep honking their horns for him to do on through.

With Girl Scout Week a week away, Pa News noticed a girl scout exhibit in a rural district this morning. It was in the window of a store at Mt. Jackson and was the exhibit of the North Beaver Girl Scouts.

Pa News noted that the women lucky enough to possess an umbrella during the rain last evening were walking close to the buildings while those less fortunate were forced to walk out in the rain.

In the coral room the "B" conference centered around "Conference Leader Training", with J. R. Jackson, consultant in conference leader training of Westinghouse Electric as the speaker. The chairman was William L. Cooper, area coordinator, vocational industrial education, University of Pittsburgh, as chairman.

The "C" sectional meeting, in the Elks Home, discussed the question, "Why An Organization for Training Directors" with the speaker coming from the national officers of the association. The chairman was W. D. Parkes, training assistant, United Gas P. L. Co., Shreveport, La.

At the noon luncheon H. J. Post, managing director of the National Association of Foremen, was the speaker, with R. L. Packard, the Packard Motor Car company of Detroit as the chairman. The summary of the morning sessions was reviewed at the luncheon.

Housewives Force Meat Prices Down

New England Women Refuse To Pay High Prices For Cow Beef. Will Wait

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—(INS)—Meat prices were started on the down-grade today by New England housewives, who decided on an unofficial buying strike.

Housewives, generally, decided against buying poor grades of meat at high prices.

At record prices of $1.00 to $1.50 a pound for cow beef dropped to 69 to 85 cents a pound. Shoppers, however, failed to stage a rush for meat even at those prices.

Housewives apparently reasoned that prime steer beef from the west coast would be in local markets and that longer wait would not make much difference after the long meat famine.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—President Truman is ready today to name a new ambassador to Great Britain to replace W. Averell Harriman, who came home to enter his cabinet as secretary of commerce.

The President will approve the choice of Secretary of State Byrnes. It is Mr. Truman's desire to have the new ambassador to London work closely with the secretary of state on the great network of international negotiations now encompassing the world. That is why the Byrnes' choice will prevail.

Workers Raise 41 Per Cent Of Chest '46 Quota

All But Eleven Divisions Report At First Meeting Of 1946 Campaign

NEXT MEETING AT NOON TUESDAY

With 41 per cent of the quota already raised, Chairman Howard B. Richards and Community Chest President Paul Dingledy are encouraged by the reports turned in by various divisions at the first report meeting of Community Chest division chairmen in The Castleton hotel Thursday.

By 1 o'clock the total number of pledges received amounted to $36,311, the chest's local quota this year is $38,600.

DIVISIONAL REPORTS

The total was made up of the following amounts raised by the various divisions:

Auto $410, mercantile $3,774, construction $1,303, wholesale foods $65, retail foods $24,725, cigars and drugs $325, hotels $200, restaurants $1,780, printing $2,952, amusements $335, banks $759.50, savings and finance, building and loan $55, insurance and real estate $253, attorneys $1,426, dentists $368, doctors $1,780, funeral directors $200, public employees $368, charity $329, clubs $350, residential $1,600, utilities $3,521, railroads $120, industrial $8,675.

Besides Chairman Richards and Mr. Dingledy, L. B. Round, addressed the group of division representatives during the luncheon meeting. Mr. Round told those present that pride in their communities should spur their efforts in putting this campaign across.

The second report meeting will be in the coral room of the hotel at 12:15 next Tuesday. Mr. Richards announced. Reports will be expected from those divisions which had no results to announce this week.

Retail prices of preserves, jams and jellies were raised two cents per one-pound jar. For each one-pound jar of apple butter, consumers will pay an additional penny.

OPA said these increases will add about six million dollars to consumers annual food bills. They become effective when retailers and wholesalers receive their first shipments at higher prices.

Flour, Bread To Be Decontrolled?

Meanwhile, one reliable source said that bread and flour would be the next food commodities to join the growing list of decontrolled items.

It was reported that Secretary of Agriculture Anderson would issue an order—probably by the week-end—removing controls on bread and flour, and possibly on bakery products.

Continuing its accelerated decontrol policy established by President Truman, OPA today lifted controls on harness, saddlery and riding equipment on the grounds that these items are unimportant to business or living costs.

The decontrol of flour and bread will be in line with OPA's plans to lift virtually all food price controls except those on sugar by Nov. 1. Since meat ceilings were lifted Tuesday, edible fats and oils and coffee have been decontrolled.

OPA officials explained that the decontrol of these food items leaves only about 12 per cent of the average housewife's food budget under control.

As a secondary aspect, Byrnes' speech will constitute an answer to the address of the then secretary of commerce Henry A. Wallace which led to the latter's resignation from the cabinet of President Truman.

Mr. Avery showed the differences between staff practice due to the enactment of various pieces of legislation. "There has been a shading and a redistribution of authority at both levels" said Mr. Avery. Among the legislation discussed were the Walsh-Healy act, the Wagner-Connally act, and the various boards set up to supervise labor relations between management and men.

Mr. Avery paid tribute to the American who he classed as an important cog in the industrial machine.

"We know and acknowledge Brake Shoe's debt to the foremen for the part they have contributed to our company's cause" said Mr. Avery.

The meeting opened the fall annual winter season of the Economic and Business Foundation and was attended by a fair sized crowd.

Forecasts said that the weather would turn cold tonight, dropping temperatures to near the freezing mark.

Mayor Reports Conference On Route Changes

Would Make Some Extensions On Routes Already Established In City

STATE COMMISSION ACTION IS NEEDED

Mayor John F. Haven reported that during a council conference with President Samuel Friedman and Superintendent H. Leroy Shoffa of the Shenango Valley Transportation company a request was made by the city for route changes in some bus operations here.

The bus officials seemed favorable, the mayor stated, but, prior to any change approval of the Public Utilities commission must be granted.

Changes Proposed

The proposed changes, according to Mayor Haven are:

Operation of an East Side bus via Beckford Street to Butler Avenue thence back to East Washington street to transport persons who work and live in the Butler Avenue line district.

Extension of Croton service to the Croton Avenue city line.

Operation of a West Side bus in Sampson Street to McCleary Avenue.

Operation of the Highland Avenue bus on Englewood Avenue south through Albert Street to Edgewood Avenue and then to Highland Avenue.

Operation of the North Jefferson Street and Wilmington Avenue bus on the south-bound trip via Euclid Avenue to North Mercer Street, south on North Mercer Street, and west on Garfield Avenue to Wilmington Avenue.

Operation of the Croton Avenue bus north on County Line Street and Crawford Avenue and Croton Avenue instead of the present route through Pine Street, East Main Street and Crawford Avenue to Croton Avenue.

Mayor Haven stated that the bus officials seemed favorable to the proposals but would be unable to make any changes until an application had been made and approved by the commission at Harrisburg.

Army Recruiters Have 'Flag Stops'

Recruiting Visits Will Be Made To Bessemer And New Wilmington Twice A Month

Visits will be made to Bessemer and New Wilmington twice monthly, starting in November, in order to facilitate enlistment of men located in the rural areas, CWO R. S. Thorn, local recruiting officer, announced today.

These will be known as "flag stops," which are temporary recruiting stations which are only open part time. Visits will be made by qualified recruiting personnel to New Wilmington on the mornings of the first and third Wednesdays of the month, and to Bessemer on the afternoons of these dates.

The draft holiday and more exacting requirements of the regular army have increased the need for voluntary enlistments, 40,000 enlistments per month being required to maintain the army's present strength of one million men, Thorn stated.

Foreign Stamps Form Topic Of Discussion

Twenty-three members of the New Castle Stamp club assembled in the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday evening, to hear two interesting addresses on foreign postage stamps, ably delivered by Rev. Andrew I. Sabak and Mrs. John Jones.

Rev. Sabak, who has traveled extensively in the European countries, discussed stamps of the countries of Europe, while Mrs. Jones, gave an interesting talk on the stamps of the Virgin Islands.

The club, at its next meeting on October 31, will have a stamp auction among the members of the organization.

ranking minority member of the same committee, and Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas (D-Calif.) stood by getting latest instructions.

Today's radio address to the nation by Secretary Byrnes was expected to reveal the nature of these instructions in detail.

Earlier, from New York, Senator Austin had indicated they would be designed to work patiently toward a complete understanding notwithstanding the current impasse between the United States and Soviet Russia.

Still, according to the keystones of U. S. foreign policy, however, there will be an insistence on the "sovereign equality" of smaller nations and an "open door" to the press of the world on all deliberations.

President Truman's address at the opening session of the general assembly next Wednesday will, of course, set the final focus.

Meanwhile delegations from the 51 member nations were pouring in, setting up headquarters and jamming otherwise already jammed hotels.

This afternoon, Mayor O'Dwyer, in a formal ceremony, was handing over to the general assembly its new site at Fishing Meadows Park—where New York's last world's fair was located.

Mrs. Kiefer, speaking as a housewife rather than as an official of the grocers' group, said:

"We housewives today are the most powerful people in America. How high prices stay and how long they will stay there depend to a very great extent upon how sensibly we women shop."

Mrs. Kiefer said that independent grocers would do their best to hold prices down.

turned over to the FBI. The information, consisting of thousands of documents, was substantiated by many signed statements and reports of oral statements by Kansas City voters.

The Star first publicly announced in editions of Sunday, October 1, that 38 investigators had uncovered voting irregularities in the Pendleton-dominated wards of the fifth district where Axteil piled up overwhelming majorities. Local machine candidates also were purged in these four wards.

U. S. District Attorney Sam Wear entered the picture a week earlier however. At that time, at request of the board of election commissioners which had been making a parallel investigation, results of the Star probe were turned over to the federal prosecutor.

The offering of the morning will be contributed to the work of St. Barnabas home, where care is given men and boys who are incurably ill and homeless.

The recruiting goal has been topped by approximately 31,000. Army officials stress, however, that because of short term rentals, an average rate of 40,000 volunteers a month must be maintained to eliminate the necessity for resumption of draft calls the first of 1947.

Air Police In The Making

As a beginning, the pattern of training which Pennsylvania State Police have inaugurated for enforcement of air laws is a good one, and the Civil Aeronautics Administration is well advised in planning to extend it to other states. In this state 1000 officers have already undergone an initial course of training at Indiantown Gap and are still studying under five state instructors.

The first object of the enforcement group is to comb the stunt-crazy pilots and the low fliers out of the skies. Such tragedies as the one in Holland recently where a low-flying pilot crashed into a school-house killing and injuring scores while stunting are the sort of thing that aviation must outgrow in short order if it is to fulfill its promise for the future.

In the last few months some localities have repeatedly been treated to hair-raising demonstrations by fliers who showed little regard for their own lives or those of their fellow-men.

At present the main attempt to curb these practices is expected to come from ground observers using binoculars who will report offenders. Obviously such a system in the long run must evolve into an organization whose members are equipped to take to the air when necessary or even to maintain regular air patrols. In the meantime, this beginning is promising.

Audacious Man

Poor old man. He has written the world's best books, best pieces of music and he has painted the world's best art. He leads in invention, in military glory, in making of laws and in athletics.

Then, with all this brain power he has the audacity to sit on CPA and attempt to regulate the length of woman's skirt to within a few inches.

Poor, ignorant soul. Does he think for an instant that a woman is going to whack her skirt off at the knee if she thinks it is more attractive an inch and one-half longer? Does he think for a moment that a woman who figures her knees are a trifle ugly is going to over-think an item like skirt length in correcting this factor?

Woman is wise. She knows what CPA does not know. She knows that it will all balance in the long run and no millions of yards of material will be saved by solemn edict over an inch or two of skirt. For every woman who thinks she is attractive with her skirt riding two inches below the knee, there is another who figures her beauty hinges on a skirt hoisted two inches above her dimples.

So while the bureaucrats issue edicts on skirt length, take a sly look at the nearest woman. She is smiling complacently. She has known for months that no dressmaker has paid much attention to edicts, that attempt to regulate skirt length to the inch.

Stalin's One World

W. Averell Harriman, secretary of commerce and former ambassador to Russia, says he was misquoted in roundabout reports of a secret lecture he made before the Army-Navy War College. The story was circulated by the Agence France-Presse and quoted him as saying that the capitalistic and communistic systems could not exist together in one world. Secretary Harriman declared: "The reports I have seen of my talk at the National War college bear little resemblance of what I actually said. I have no further comment to make."

The French report read in part:

Harriman added that the Soviets as a consequence of that conference decided to adopt a policy line tending to thwart by all means everywhere the efforts of the United States and Great Britain in world political affairs . . . A short time before he died, President Roosevelt arrived at the same conclusion as that of Moscow. If Roosevelt were living now, his policy would certainly be about the same as that of Truman and Byrnes."

If Secretary Harriman did not say what he was quoted as saying—and it is not necessary to accept his statement to that effect as final—Stalin's firm opposition to capitalism is well substantiated by open record. In fact, in comparison with Stalin's own declarations to the Russian people, the French story gives the impression of understatement.

It is gratifying to reflect, nevertheless, that Wallace's successor as secretary of commerce, though better qualified to speak on Russia, fully appreciates the responsibilities of his position and has no wish to embarrass and hamper the State department in its difficult task of handling foreign affairs.

Try as it might, the OPA hasn't yet been able to put a ceiling on houses. About as far as the average builder can get is the basement.

There has been brought to the United States a German process for making butter out of coal. Next thing you know John L. Lewis will have charge of the butter-makers.

There were 31 divorces in the United States in 1945 for each 100 marriages. How could you expect us to get along with Europe when we can't get along among ourselves?

Although the festive day is approaching, Washington is engrossed in minor matters to such an extent no announcement of a change in the date for Thanksgiving has been made.

Meat Mystery Holds

Stage In Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The great meat industry has held the political stage here in Chicago almost exclusively. It has been exploited by the Republicans in every conceivable way. Whether President Truman's action in taking the controls off meat will resolve the mystery is now a political question of the finest importance.

The Chicago Tribune, virtually the official organ of the Republican party in this state, carries daily front-page stories on the shortage, all carefully slanted to make it seem as though the "New Deal administration" in Washington had planned it that way. Sometimes the Tribune makes a "news" story do double duty. A recent front-page headline said: "Foods You Want Being Sent Abroad." That scored against "internationalism" and Uncle Sam, in addition to whetting the appetite of the middle west for raw meat.

Logical Reasons

There are, of course, perfectly good and logical reasons why the shortage should be acute. The whole political tangle over control and decontrol, with the interval when all controls were lifted, was enough in itself to create a shortage.

But you hear little about these reasons growing out of the vast dislocation of the greatest war in history. The meat mystery has been presented in the middle west in terms of a dark plot by those who would undermine the American way of life.

If it had not been for the meat mystery, the campaign in Illinois would be duller and more listless than it is. And even with that thrill-ridden, it's pretty dull.

Illinois has no senatorial contest this year. Almost the only race that holds any interest is that for congress-at-large.

Here the voters have a genuine choice, one that has drama and keen significance for the country as a whole. The incumbent congressman-at-large is Mrs. Emily Taft Douglas, a liberal Democrat, who first ran for office while her professor husband was fighting with the marine corps in the Pacific.

Alert To Role

Mrs. Douglas, intelligent and well-informed, is alert to the importance of the role America must play it we are to have peace and a stable world. Her Republican opponent is William G. Stratton, an isolationist and nationalist, who during a previous service in Congress helped the American First crowd to foster the dangerous illusion that this country had nothing to fear from abroad.

The shattering of that myth—if we just mind our own business, they won't bother us—at Pearl Harbor was one of the greatest shocks this nation has ever had.

Stratton has frequently appeared at meetings run by the nationalist fringe at which the speeches sound like a faulty broadcast from Berlin in the old Nazi days. His election would signal the return of the isolationist mentality of the late 30s.

How this race will come out is anyone's guess at the moment. Mrs. Douglas has the support of such earliest organizations as the independent voters of Illinois. But her backers are not too optimistic.

A lot depends on how large a Democratic vote Mayor Edward J. Kelly can deliver in Chicago. Kelly is a Kennedy in the Roosevelt era. Kelly rolled up massive majorities sufficient to blanket any total coming from the rural counties down state.

Aging War Horse

But now he is an aging war horse. Just how old he is, no one is quite certain, as the mayor is discreet on this score. Those who should know put his age at 73 or 74.

In any event, years of prosperity and success, years of dignity and respectability, have dulled his just for battle. His old partner, Pat Nash, is not more, and the Kelly-Snow machine is not the 12-cylinder job it once was. The mayor must deliver the vote this time to refute the accusations of his enemies and detractors.

But with his shrewd political instincts, he knows that it is a bad year to be on the spot. "Boss" Kelly was acutely aware that the meat mystery had a painful reality behind it.

The men and women of this roaring, smoking metropolis do hard work. They are used to eating good, substantial food with lots of meat. When they went to the butcher shop and found the counters empty day after day, they were ready to believe the propaganda that the shortage was the result of a New Deal plot.

That was why Kelly went charging down to Washington to see President Truman. It was why he vetoed all suggestions that the voters be told the real reasons behind the meat shortage. They won't listen to complicated reasons, said Ed Kelly, who ought to know.

Chicago, of course, had an immediate concern over the meat crisis. Some 40,000 packing house employees were thrown out of work when long lines of cattle cars stopped flowing to market.

About the overwhelming problem of our complex age few people here seem to be thinking. On the Illinois horizon is the transcendent vision of a porterhouse steak.

State Expects
New Ice Cream
Output Record

HARRISBURG, Oct. 18.—Apparently heading toward a new all-time annual record for the nation's No. 1 state in the production of ice cream, Pennsylvania manufacturers in June made more than 10 million gallons and turned out nearly nine million gallons in August. The State Department of Agriculture announced following federal-state surveys.

July's production of 10,300,000 gallons of ice cream was the highest ever recorded for that or any other month, the survey revealed. It was 13 per cent more than was produced in June 1946, and 84 per cent above July, 1945. It exceeded the five-year average for July, 1940 through 1944, by 58 per cent.

The ice cream made in Pennsylvania during July was enough to supply every man, woman and child in the state with approximately four quarts each. However, officials pointed out that Pennsylvania ice cream is in great demand and is shipped to many other states.

of these strikes for anyone. They weaken us abroad as well as at home. They adversely affect every citizen. The more thoughtful labor leaders themselves concede they bring slight net benefit to the strikers.

WHAT, then, is it all about? Below are the official figures on strikes for selected years since 1928:

Strikes During Year Workers Involved in Strikes Days Lost

Year 1928 694 314,210 13,631,363

1932 1,232 320,000 10,000,000

1937 1,695 1,168,232 16,872,128

1937 4,740 1,869,621 28,424,857

1941 4,288 2,365,620 23,047,556

1945 4,194 2,471,620 24,429,000

1946 3,125 3,467,000 38,025,000

*Eight months only.

THESE figures, Mr. Sullivan concludes, demonstrate that the Washington policy of coddling the professional strike leaders has meant an average of eight times as many strikes every year as in the normal years before the New Deal formed its degrading alliance with the Communists CIO-PAC. It seems impossible that any reasonable man can assimilate these figures without agreeing that the one great need of the nation is to find a fair and effective labor policy.

the punisher needs to check on his procedure and improve it.

A few children whine and cry excessively because they are starving for affection, or suppose they get less of it than a brother or sister does. Be sure to fondle the youngster abundantly when he is good and really cultivate affection for him. Enjoy his conversation, answer his questions, read to him and have many good times with him.

When you know he has been out of sorts for a long period, you should drop everything and rock and cuddle him, sing or read to him or go walking with him or create something with him. Such procedure should help you relax and be more calm with the child. Sometimes, as you know, his whining and crying only reflect the tenseness and irritation of some other one or all the rest of the family. of damaging that system than by an almost constant epidemic of strikes, it has not been suggested.

STRIKES stall production, which is the one effective guard against inflation. Strikes force increased wages and endanger the whole economic structure. Every industry and every market place in the United States today reflects the tremendous production loss in the first eight months of this year. Millions need houses, radios, washing machines, refrigerators and hundreds of other things they can't get because strikes have interfered with production. No good has come out

Lou Brown, state field secretary of the Gideons organization, was speaker of the evening. He gave an account of the activities throughout the state.

Senator Taft Assails Spending

Also Advocates U. S. "Stop Passing Out Money To Foreign Nations"

DECATUR, Ill., Oct. 18.—(INS)—U. S. Sen. Robert A. Taft (R), Ohio, charged that the "planned economy policies" of the Truman administration have brought about serious inflation in this country today.

The Ohio senator made his charges Wednesday night at a Republican rally, stepping into the Illinois political campaign to urge the election of a GOP Congress in November.

Senator Taft added:

"President Truman has finally adopted the policy of decontrolling meat which the Republicans adopted last April. But he is terribly angry at the Republicans for being right."

"He is angry at the farmers, apparently, and intends to punish them by importing Mexican cattle."

Seeks To Blame Republicans

Taft charged that President Truman, "panicky at the result of his own price control policy is now trying to blame the Republicans."

The Ohio senator asserted that meat is the most difficult food to control in price because of the great variation in cattle and meat cuts. He defended the Taft-Wherry amendments to the first OPA act passed by Congress which were described by the President as main flaws in the act prior to his veto.

"The truth is that planned economy will not work."

The senator charged that the President removed wage controls immediately after the war and encouraged salary increases which resulted in OPA-granted price increases on steel and other commodities and drove up the price of manufactured goods. Then, during the 30 OPA-less days, prices zoomed to adjust themselves to costs.

Score Excessive Spending

Taft asserted:

"The net result is a great inflation which in the end will certainly reduce the value of the dollar by 40 per cent, and thereby reduce the purchasing power of all bank deposits and life insurance policies."

"Thrift and saving have always been contrary to the philosophy of New Deal spending."

Taft scored what he termed excessive spending of federal funds for public works, social security, UNRRA, foreign loans and additional federal employees. He said the budget should be reduced to approximately 25 billion dollars, and advocated we "stop passing out money to foreign nations."

Firemen's Relief Associations To Get $10,798 In County

Auditor General G. Harold Wagner has approved payments totaling $10,798.33 to Firemen's Relief Fund Associations in twenty-one political subdivisions in Lawrence County.

The payments represent the two percent tax on the premiums of fire insurance policies written within the political subdivision in which the relief association is located, by companies whose main offices are outside the boundaries of the commonwealth. The money is forwarded to the treasurer of the municipality, who turns it over to the relief association of the fire company or fire department, paid at volunteer service that community, and which is duly recognized by the council, commissioners or supervisors, as the case may be of the various cities, boroughs and townships.

Municipalities, and the amount each will receive, are:

City of New Castle, $7,778.18.
Boroughs: Bessemer, $161.15; Ellport, $42.52; Ellwood City, $1,836.62; Enon Valley, $19.21; New Wilmington, $197.03; South New Castle, $30.22; Volant, $15.61; Wampum, $68.83.

Townships: Big Beaver, $29.99; Hickory, $56.55; Little Beaver, $6.14; Neshannock, $182.55; Perry, $40.57; Plaingrove, $6.05; Pulaski, $58.98; Shenango, $177.59; Slippery Rock, $18.10; Taylor, $36.87; Washington, $11.87; Wilmington, $23.70.

Plans '46 Program

Realigning the city's student guidance policies for the 1946-47 year, the Council on Guidance met this week in the senior high school.

Chairman Mrs. Marjorie Nelson announced four new members who were present: Mary Elizabeth Gibson of Croton school; Miss Beatrice Bruce of Highland; Mrs. Jennie Kivistö of Lincoln-Garfield, and Helen Ryan of Pollock.

Reports were heard on a new program of orientation, on the career clinic given last year, on ease studies and on pre-school registration.

Discussion of possible projects for this year will be followed by voting by the faculty of each school. A new committee on visual aids in education is under the chairmanship of James Green of the senior high school, and includes Arthur Walker of Washington junior high and Larry McCandless of Franklin junior high.

Miss Helen Maxwell is now on the executive board of the council, representing the elementary schools in place of Miss Martha Matthews, who is now at Washington.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—(INS)—The Daily Express reported today that renewed outbreaks between Hindus and Moslems caused 5,000 more deaths during the past week in India's Bengal province.

The dispatch said also that a Bengal Congress party leader claimed Moslems have converted 50,000 Hindus by force. These were said to include Hindu women compelled to marry Moslem men.

Grove City College To Enlarge Chapel

GROVE CITY, Oct. 18.—Workmen have already begun to take out the land on the Wolf creek side of Harbison chapel on the Grove City College campus, for a much needed addition to the building.

The Civilian Production Administration in Washington, has authorized $39,000 for the proposed enlargement which will add 180 more seats to the present chapel capacity of 900.

The building, a gift to the college from William A. Harbison of White Plains, N. Y., and his brother, Ralph Harbison of Sewickley, was dedicated in the fall of 1931 and since that time has been the center of student worship on the campus.

Due to shortages of materials, it is proposed by officials of the school to combine the proposed alumni hall, which is a memorial to the college students who lost their lives in World War II, with a new intramural athletic center.

Erection of emergency dwelling on the college property is almost completed and will accommodate 16 families. Construction of the Mary Anderson Pew dormitory for women is progressing.

She was accompanied by Mrs. Mary

Mrs. Tyson outlined in a clear fashion the work and aims of the Public Charities Association, par-children on the verge of juvenile de-practical fashion.

At the close of the meeting, after a period of discussion upon motion,

Arctic Flights May Be Routine

"Dreamboat" Commander Sees Trans-Polar Hops As Routine In Near Future

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(INS)—Col. Clarence Irvine, commander of the trail-blazing "Pacrusan Dreamboat" flight across the Arctic, predicted that trans-Polar flights could become "routine in the near future."

Irvine, who brought his sleek Superfortress into Washington this afternoon after a record-breaking flight from France to the U. S. yesterday, declared that such flights were possible with major changes in present navigational equipment.

Irvine said: "We flew the Hawaii to Egypt route across the Arctic with only standard navigation instruments. We know now that they are too small, unreliable and inaccurate to make possible routine operations across Polar regions."

Better Instruments
"What we hope to do is to put more intelligence into the instruments themselves. We are in Washington to present our recommendations, based on successful Arctic flight, to Army Air Force headquarters."

Irvine and all members of the crew were decorated for their part in pioneering the air paths over the Polar regions.

The crew was greeted on arrival in Washington by Gen. Carl A. Spaatz, commander of the Army Air Forces, and ranking air leaders of both the Army and Navy.

The grinning, perpetually cigar-chewing Irvine was awarded an Oak Leaf cluster to the Distinguished Flying Cross by Spaatz who gave him a hearty "well done."

Decorated
Spaatz decorated Irvine and his crew "for extraordinary achievement in sustained aerial flight during the 4th, 5th and 6th of October."

Awarded
Distinguished Flying Crosses were: Col. Beverly Warren of Omaha, Nev., co-pilot, and Maj. Norman Hays of Seneca, Mo., navigator.

Air medals were awarded Lt. Col. Frank J. Shannon, radio operator; Maj. James R. Dale Jr. of Wise, Va., flight engineer; Maj. James T. Brothers of Knoxville, Tenn., second navigator; Master Sgt. Edward Vasse of Huntsville, Mo.; Maj. James R. Kerr of Arcadia, Calif., personal equipment officer; Master Sgt. Gordon Fish of Appleton, Wis., crew chief, and R. B. Snodgrass of the Boeing Co., Seattle, special flight engineer and technical consultant.

Launch Movement To Get Absentee GI Election Vote

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17—(INS)—War department machinery was in motion, today, to encourage and facilitate absentee voting by GI's in the November elections.

Secretary of War Patterson and Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, army chief of staff, outlined in official war department documents the army's program for enabling soldiers to make their opinions known at the polls.

They declared: "The policy of the war department is to assist and encourage soldiers eligible and desiring to vote in an election by state absentee ballot to exercise that privilege and to expedite state absentee balloting procedures to the greatest extent practicable and compatible with military operations."

Patterson and Eisenhower emphasized, however, that "no person will be ordered to vote or marched to the voting place."

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 18.—(INS)—Gentle Teresa Wright has just completed a role which delighted her no end. She portrayed a girl who marries a man for the sake of killing him. It's the first time in a career which already has brought her one academy award that she ever has done anything like that.

Teresa, who has played a number of sweet young things on the screen, wouldn't go quite so far as to say she'd rather play bad girls than good girls.

"But," she said, "there's generally more to get your teeth in when you're playing a bad girl than a good girl."

It's not that she's really bad in "Pursued", a real western drama at Warners. She's a victim of circumstances—circumstances created by her husband, Niven Busch, who wrote the story.

"I like the part better than anything I have ever done," she said. She contrasted she liked Virginia Mayo's role better than her own in the picture she finished just before she started "Pursued". That was "The Best Years of Their Lives" for Sam Goldwyn.

"I was the nice girl and Virginia was the bad girl," Teresa said. "She wasn't bad for any reason other than her environment. She did the things she did just because they were the natural things for her to do."

"I like those kind of roles." She has a vacation now until Jan. 15 when she starts "The

THREE KILLED IN CINDER PIT BLAST AT J&L FACTORY

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 18.—(INS)—The toll of dead in a cinder pit explosion at the Jones & Laughlin Steel corporation's Pittsburgh plant today stood at three, company officials announced.

Seven other workers were injured.

Anthony Spack, 56, and Dennis Lydon, 40, were killed instantly in the blast and Phillip Weaver, 33, died shortly after being admitted to Southside hospital, the company said.

Investigators said the explosion apparently was the result of gas fumes collecting in a cinder pit near an open hearth furnace.

Rhenium is associated with molybdenum and manganese minerals and is of interest to lamp manufacturers because of its very high melting point of 3,200 degrees centigrade.

Vandal Slashes

Truman Portrait

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—(INS)

—The Washington Times-Herald reported in a copyrighted story today that a vandal slashed the portrait of President Truman by John Slavin in the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum.

The story said that the oil painting, regarded by many as the finest likeness of the President in existence, was mutilated by a two-inch gash across the Chief Executive's face and some doubt was expressed by the artist as to whether the damage can be repaired.

Slavin was quoted as saying:

"I think whoever did it performed what amounts to a direct and outrageous insult against the President."

The artist said he plans to inspect the painting in the company of gallery officials today. He said it was his property and he had planned to insure it for $10,000.

State Policeman Makes Charge Against Flyer Before Squire

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

"Buzzing" an airplane down within a hundred feet or less is a practice which is not only dangerous but is against the aviation law. During the war low flying by cadets was explained by the fact that they had to learn such tactics in order to qualify for fighter pilots.

Since the war the custom has been less general but occasionally it happens. It happened over New Bedford several days ago and State Policeman Paul Mato issued a warrant for the arrest of Airmen Nick Badia. Before Justice of the Peace H. M. Reynolds of Union township, Badia pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs by Reynolds.

British House Of Commons Member To Speak Here

Hon. Rhys Davies Will Make Two Addresses At First Congregational Church

Touring the United States and Canada, under the auspices of the American Friends Service Committee, the Hon. Rhys Davies, British member of parliament, will arrive in this city on Sunday, October 20, and deliver two addresses in the First Congregational church, East Reynolds street.

Mr. Davies is one of the most outstanding members of the British Labor party, and has represented Manchester, England, for 25 years, in the British House of Commons. He will be accompanied here by E. A. Schall of Philadelphia, secretary of the American Friends Committee.

The Central Christian church has arranged to cancel their Sunday evening service to give their membership an opportunity of hearing this distinguished speaker. The meeting is public.

At 4 p. m. Sunday, Mr. Davies will make his first address, to be followed by a public reception given Mr. Davies at 5:30 o'clock. The reception committee will be Mrs. T. J. Jones, Mrs. Henry T. Jones, Mrs. George J. Jones, Mrs. Peggy Jones, Mrs. Griff Thomas, Mrs. Rachel Long, Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. John Coughlin, Mrs. David Matthews, Miss Louise Mann and Mrs. F. C. McKinley.

In the evening at 7:30, Mr. Davies will speak on the subject "The Basis of a Permanent Peace." Opportunity will be afforded the public to ask questions after both the addresses. He will be introduced at the evening service by Mr. Schall.

The Hon. Mr. Davies spent ten years of his life as a coal miner in Wales, and later as a Congregational minister, before entering upon a political career. He is the author of several books on international affairs, and has travelled extensively as a lecturer in United States and Canada.

Henry T. Jones, executive committee chairman of the church, will present the greetings of the American-Welsh of this city. Vocal solos and hymn singing will also feature the meeting.

Recognizing the United States as "an impatient nation," she held nevertheless that a horribly destructive war could not be fought for four years and then have everything slip back to a normal peace-time routine in a matter of a few months.

Beginning Monday evening at 7:35 o'clock a great evangelistic crusade for Christ will open in the home of Bessemer sponsored by the Mission Covenant church, with services to be held in the First Presbyterian church of Bessemer.

Evangelist Albert Peterson of Ottumwa, Iowa, has been secured as the speaker. Evangelist Peterson worked 16 years with the late Billy Sunday in his campaigns throughout the country.

Due to the great interest in the meetings, all the churches of the community, the Finnish Lutheran, Pentecostal, Presbyterian and Mission Covenant, have banded together for the special effort. Each church will participate in the programs.

The meetings, to be held nightly during the week, will come to a close Sunday, October 27, in the Presbyterian church, with two services, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

It was reported in Washington that Venezuela has offered a haven to the Estonians, but they object to going to that country because of the climate.

The decision, however, applies only to the 18 who arrived on Aug. 31. The case of the other 29 is still pending. All were permitted to stay in Miami for 60 days after their landing.

Halloween Brings Wide Celebration

October 31 is the festival for autumn similar to May Day in the spring, but probably no folk holiday has taken a stronger hold upon popular imagination for grownups or children than the celebration of Halloween.

Although the name Halloween comes from Christian origin and refers to All Hallows or All Saints Day which comes on November 1, it was originated among the Druid centuries before the dawn of the Christian era.

The countries of the old world fastened various myths and superstitions on this eve that witches, ghosts, and spirits wander abroad and huge bonfires were built to chase these spooks away.

Now days the spirit of rowdiness has, in a measure, suppressed the old custom with thoughts of vandalism in mind from those fellows who are grownup in darkness. Of course we exclude the little fellows who enjoy door-bell ringing.

Pranks are fun and we all like fun, psychologists say we can't have too much, but remember pranks differ from vandalism. We do not want anything destroyed and then too sometimes escapades backfire and some innocent victim is injured.

The Central Christian church has arranged to cancel their Sunday evening service to give their membership an opportunity of hearing this distinguished speaker. The meeting is public.

At 4 p. m. Sunday, Mr. Davies will make his first address, to be followed by a public reception given Mr. Davies at 5:30 o'clock. The reception committee will be Mrs. T. J. Jones, Mrs. Henry T. In the evening at 7:30, Mr. Davies will speak on the subject "The Basis of a Permanent Peace." Opportunity will be afforded the public to ask questions after both the addresses. He will be introduced at the evening service by Mr. Schall.

The former first lady so declared in an exclusive interview with International News Service, adding:

"The way prices have gone up in the past few days tends to prove it. The great majority of people simply can't afford to pay these prices. A few will get meat—but not the people."

She said she believes that big bosses led the Republicans "and some Democrats" into a mistaken view of true historical sentiment.

Mrs. Roosevelt expressed the opinion that we apparently have adopted a laissez faire policy—"Let everything go and see what happens."

Recognizing the United States as "an impatient nation," she held nevertheless that a horribly destructive war could not be fought for four years and then have everything slip back to a normal peace-time routine in a matter of a few months.

The announcement said that the decision had been approved by Attorney General Tom C. Clark. The board held the entry of the Estonians was illegal because the Estonian quota had been exceeded and because none had entry visas.

The decision, however, was issued "without prejudice" and the 18 Estonians may appear within one year for a legal entry permit.

Altogether, the justice department said, 46 Estonians landed in Florida in small boats. Today's decision, however, applies only to the 18 who arrived on Aug. 31. The case of the other 29 is still pending. All were permitted to stay in Miami for 60 days after their landing.

Hold Ten Youths For Mistreatment Of Trenton Girls

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., Oct. 18.—(INS)—Ten youths were held today on charges of kidnapping, robbing and assaulting three Trenton girls after driving them to a lonely section near historic Bordentown.

The girl told state police the men forced them into automobiles as they were leaving a Trenton tavern early yesterday. The men assertedly held their victims captive in a gravel pit on an estate once owned by Joseph Bonaparte, brother of Napoleon.

The trio was identified as Judy Zazacke, 23; Ruth Miller, 20, and Freda Loucker, 22. Police said they moved to Trenton from Pittsburgh two months ago to work.

Miss Zazacke told detectives the men kept them in the gravel pit for three hours and, after assaulting and robbing them of personal effects, returned to Trenton. She remembered the license number of one of the cars and informed a policeman.

Several hours later a patrolman located the automobile and arrested three men who implicated the others. Seven of the suspects were held without bail for action of the grand jury, and a similar arraignment was planned for the others.

State Trooper Reese said the girls "were not badly beaten, but just sufficiently to keep them subdued."

OFFER CARNEGIE MANSION TO U. N.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(INS)—The mansion built by the late Andrew Carnegie on Fifth Avenue has been offered, it was learned today, to the United Nations as a club and office building.

The mansion has 30 bedrooms, most with baths, a great portrait gallery and numerous drawing rooms. It cost an estimated $1,000,000 to build at the turn of the century and has been kept in perfect condition.

SCHOOL SCHEDULE OVERLOADED SAYS ERIE INSTRUCTOR

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—(INS)—An Erie school supervisor, Sister M. Jerome, S. S. J., held today that the introduction of too many new subjects in elementary schools has caused a serious teaching problem. Sister Jerome addressed the opening session of the three-day meeting of the Catholic Education Association of Pennsylvania.

Public demands have introduced so many new subjects into elementary curriculum," the school supervisor said, "that it is impossible to divide weekly schedules so as to include them all or still feel that, fundamentally, children are being better trained."

Sister Jerome, head of the Villa Maria school at Erie, added:

"The acceptance of the principle that we must teach children rather than the subject has carried us far along the road of integration."

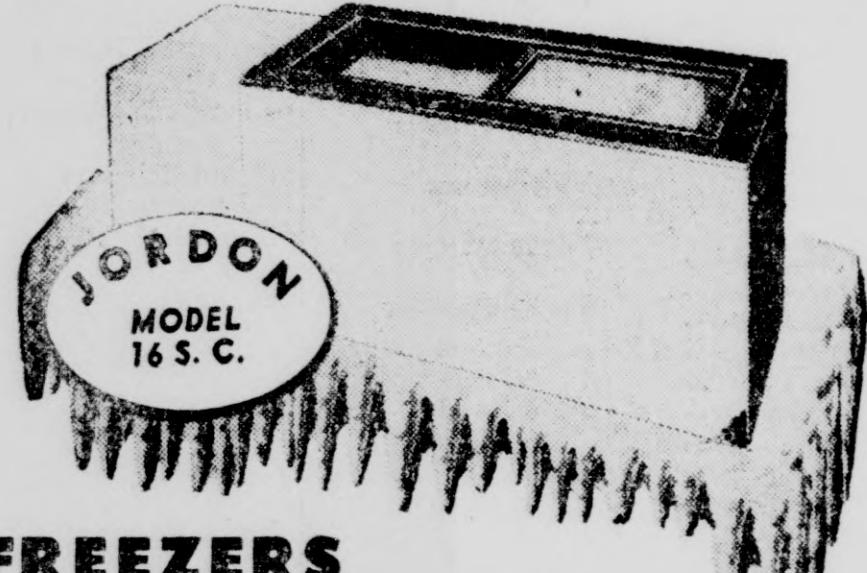

Potato Program For State Growers

HARRISBURG, Oct. 18.—(INS)—The state agricultural adjustment agency today announced the establishment of a potato price support program in Pennsylvania for 1946-47 winter.

Growers, unable to find immediate markets for surplus spuds, were eligible for federal loans at the rate of 80 cents a hundred pounds for large tubers and 30 cents for small ones to provide "operating capital" pending sales, according to Secretary John A. Smith.

Supplies unsold by April 30 of next year will be bought by the Commercial Credit Corporation, Smith said.

He outlined the following price support scale: large potatoes delivered in bags, $2.10 a hundred pounds; delivered bulk, $1.85; delivered, $1.70; small sized spuds delivered in bags, $1.05 a hundred pounds; delivered bulk, $80; un-delivered, $65.

Will Widen Route 68
In Butler County

BUTLER, Oct. 18.—The Pennsylvania Department of Highways announced today that a contract had been awarded at Harrisburg, for the widening and resurfacing of 5.98 miles of traffic route 68 in Conqueringham, Conqueringham and Butler townships. The contract was awarded to the County

Construction company, Carnegie, at its low bid of $357,321.60.

The present 16 foot pavement will be widened by six feet, with the placement of a two and quarter bituminous surface on the entire new 22 foot highway.

The road is heavily traveled connecting Route No. 19 and 422. Many existing dangerous curves will be eliminated in the construction project.

Challenge To Free Enterprise Is Seen

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright, 1946, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)

EN ROUTE TO CENTRAL WEST, Oct. 18.—As this is being published I am on a railroad train making my annual inspection of our U. S. Well, my first thought is that the railroads are racing toward government ownership! It is not entirely the fault of management, although the lack of interest in the railroads, financial or otherwise, on the part of directors and officials, is no doubt a contributing factor. A railroad or any other business can not be expected to operate at a loss. Yet today, in the greatest period of peace-time railroads, most of the railroads are operating at dangerously high costs and are crying for higher freight rates which only postpone the day of recovery.

The railroads, today, need many high-cost replacements. It is estimated that from four to six thousand locomotives will need to be replaced within the next few years, many now being over twenty-five years in service. There is great need for new passenger and freight cars. Are the railroads to continue to operate with the same equipment until eventually it falls apart and we have no railroads? Or are they going to manage to operate with a profit large enough to attract investor interest and thus with the increased capital so obtained permit replacements and improvements?

Need For Economy

The only real hope for continued solvency of the railroads is a concerted campaign to reduce costs. We have examples of such savings in the new vapor seasoning method for ties and timbers, which reduces checking and splitting more effectively than the old air seasoning process. Further, it reduces the time necessary to accomplish the seasoning, from approximately 15 months to less than a day. Hardened and welded rails help to reduce high maintenance costs. The use of long-lived materials results in greater rigidity and permanence of track.

Partly because of higher labor costs, many maintenance-of-way departments are using more power-operated machinery than ever before. With machines, three or four times more track can be laid in the same time than can be laid manually, and maintenance costs materially reduced. The protection of ties from mechanical damage, caused by the higher speeds and the heavier loads and motive power of today may be effected by the installation of larger tie plates. An authority on the subject states that the installation of such large plates, even though the heavier rails are not now to be installed, will produce a savings per track mile of $500 to $1500 annually. But all these improvements cost money and where will the money be found? I fear that Uncle Sam who controls the rates must provide it.

Management's Responsibility

Directors and officials of railroads should have a greater financial interest in their companies. If the present management is to continue to operate the railroads, it is up to an active managing interest to avail itself of all known and new methods of economic operation. Furthermore, labor must cooperate toward a fair relation between labor costs and freight and passenger rates, and in addition must find ways of encouraging thrift and responsibility for a full day's work by all of the railroad employees.

If management does not fight for its rights to make and keep the railroads a profitable business, government ownership is likely to result. A fair example of what this result will be is the following:

might mean can be seen in Mexico where the rail transportation of the country is close to breaking down and where the government-owned roads are being controlled and operated by the labor unions. And this brings me to my final statement, namely, that the labor unions are running the railroads. With an exception of a dozen, I don't want a penny invested in the remaining 200 roads.

DECONTROL WON'T

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(INS)—George V. Robbins, president of the National Coffee Association, Thursday said that higher coffee prices are not anticipated with the end of price controls.

Robbins declared: "Since existing stocks of coffee considerably exceed the demand, the natural laws of supply and demand, coupled with the revival of competitive buying and selling both here and in the producing countries will serve to stabilize the market."

If management does not fight for its rights to make and keep the railroads a profitable business, government ownership is likely to result. A fair example of what this result will be is the following:

Third Major Labor Dispute In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 18.—(INS)—
Industrial Pittsburgh, already paral-yzed by a power and a hotel strike, today faced a third major labor dispute when a jurisdiction
"war" broke out between the AFL Teamsters' Union and the CIO brewery workers.

Dispute Flares

The brewery dispute flared when AFL union officials insisted that bottling house employees in the city's three large breweries must join the AFL. The breweries have contracts with the CIO.

The AFL threw picket lines around the establishments and when this method failed to stop deliveries, the teamsters fell back on an unusual clause in their contracts which provides that no wholesaler may deal with anyone whom the teamsters declare unfair.

So bitter was the dispute between the two labor bodies that police have been assigned to convoy trucks through the city. Each convoy had a squadron of police leading it and six automobiles filled with CIO men bringing up the rear.

The police escort was ordered by Mayor David L. Lawrence to prevent a recurrence of violence which resulted in a beating of a CIO brewery employee.

Power Strike Continues

Meanwhile, power paralyzed
Pittsburgh sought means to end the 24-day-old walkout of utility workers.

Federal labor conciliators conferred with both management and labor until midnight with no progress in negotiations reported.

Pittsburgh hotels and downtown office buildings had heat and hot water for the first time today since the crippling strike began September 24. The Allegheny Steam Heating Company resumed operations yesterday when AFL teamsters ran a picket blockade and delivered several thousand tons of coal.

Hotel operators said that settlement of the strike involving eight major hotels appeared remote after brief negotiations sessions.

There are other kinds of needles.
A needle is used to inoculate chil-

Many of them died.

Since they have been protected

There is always danger from

Trial Wednesday
For Youth Held
In Buddy's Death

PITTSBURGH Oct. 18.—(INS)—Charles Hazlett, Jr., 13-year-old youth charged with the fatal "coke and robber" shooting of a playmate last New Year's Eve, will go on trial next Tuesday, it was announced today in Pittsburgh.

The youthful murder defendant, believed to be the youngest in the history of Allegheny County, was accused of shooting Michael Gerich, 12, with a .22 rifle while they were playing in the Hazlett home. Police said the boy has confessed to the slaying and to concealing the body beneath debris in the Hazlett cellar for eight months. He claimed the shooting was accidental, police said.

The slaying was discovered in August when new owners moved into the house and found the Gerrich boy's skeleton buried under debris in the cellar.

Defense Attorney Maurice A. Wheeler said he will seek to have the murder charge dismissed on the grounds of the boy's story of the slaying, and have him tried on a lesser charge.

Young Hazlett was at liberty on $2,500 bond pending trial.

Accuse Truman
Of Breaking His Promise To Arabs

LONDON, Oct. 18.—(INS)—King Ibn Saud of Saudi-Arabia accused President Truman today of breaking a promise and disturbing present conditions by his recent demand for immediate settlement of 100,000 Jewish refugees in Palestine.

The Saudi-Arabian legation in London released the letter from Ibn Saud to the president. The king said Truman has acted "without any due regard to all the previous promises given the Arabs."

He claimed that President Truman had promised not to advance any proposals concerning Palestine

General "Ike" said he was assured that everything humanly possible will be done for the displaced persons by the Big Four governments. He pointed out that the army does not make policy but merely acts to carry it out.

Bulk Containers Ordered By Pennsy

Helping to assure a greater flow of raw materials vital to the production of badly needed steel, the Pennsylvania Railroad has ordered 408 bulk containers, with a maximum capacity of 8 tons each, for the movement of lime, fluxing stone, ferro-manganese, silica sand and other steel constituents.

In batteries of twelve, mounted in specially equipped gondola cars, the containers will move directly to sidings within the steel mills, where they will be handled by crane to the furnaces. They are emptied through bottom doors, which control the rate of flow.

When the new containers are delivered the Pennsylvania will have 2806 units in service. They will be built at the railroad's Altoona Works, and existing gondola cars will be reconditioned at the Enola, Pa., car shops to carry them.

Believe Weaver Kidnapped Children

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 18.—(INS)—Police in 11 eastern states were asked today to search for a 42-year-old former Philadelphia weaver suspected of abducting two Camden children nine days ago.

The children, Catherine, Rose Evans, 8, and her brother Joseph, 10, and their disappearance was reported by their mother, Mrs. Elsie Evans, 35.

Mrs. Evans told police she thought the children had been taken by Raymond Seth, 42, a neighbor with whom she had quarreled.

Her husband recently was released from prison after serving a nine-month term for non-support.

Detective John Trout said he had traced Seth and the missing children to Salem, N. J., and then lost the trail.

Disabled World War I Veteran
Taken By Death

Frank McClusky, brought to hospital here on September 19, died last night.

Frank McClusky, aged 49 years, of R. D. 2, New Wilmington, died in the Jameson Memorial hospital at 5 o'clock Thursday evening, after a lingering illness. The contributory cause of McClusky's death was listed by the attending physician as encephalitis, a type of brain disease, for which McClusky, a veteran of World War One had been receiving a total disability pension for a number of years.

Public attention was drawn to the case, when McClusky, who had been an invalid for a number of years, was brought to the Jameson Memorial hospital here on September 19, after complaint had been made to the Veterans Administration office here that there was evidence that McClusky was allegedly being neglected by his wife, Juliaetta, and step-daughter, Miss Ruth Woodruff.

Mrs. McClusky and her daughter became involved in an argument which went as far as a justice of the peace's office in Mercer, on complaints of assault and battery filed by Richard Bly and John Roman, two ex-GIs of the late war, who resided in the McClusky home, about a mile north of New Wilmington, but the charges were not substantiated, and the case was dismissed.

McClusky, however, was found to be in a weakened condition, and it was deemed advisable to keep him hospitalized here. His condition gradually became worse, and he died Thursday afternoon.

Attorney Leo L. Lucette, of Masury, McClusky's guardian, was notified following his death, and had the body removed to the Cunningham Funeral Home at West Middlesex.

Mr. McClusky was born in Price-dale, Pa., March 23, 1897, and for the past two years lived in New Wilmington, moving from Masury, O. The deceased was a World War I veteran, having served for six years as sergeant with the 23rd Infantry of the Second Division. While in combat he was wounded severely, and was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor. He was a member of the V. F. W. of Sharon, and of the Wesleyan Methodist church, West Middlesex.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Juliaetta Miller McClusky; and step-daughter, Ruth Woodruff.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Cunningham funeral home, West Middlesex, Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Rev. E. F. Johnson, of the Sharon Nazarene church, and Rev. David Stonebraker, of Wesleyan Methodist church in charge.

The family will receive friends this evening and Saturday evening at 7 to 9 o'clock, in the funeral home.

Military services will be conducted at the Cornersburg cemetery, Cornersburg, O., near Youngstown, Ohio.

Election As Senator Might Bring Him Nomination For Vice President

OTHER NEWS OF STATE ACTIVITIES

HARRISBURG, Oct. 18.—(INS)—Many officials at the State Capitol have expressed the belief that the election of Gov. Edward Martin to the U. S. Senate next month would place Pennsylvania's chief executive in an advantageous position for the Republican nomination for the vice-presidency in 1948. A large number of leaders at the state house have predicted that 67-year-old Governor Martin would score an easy victory over his Democratic opponent Joseph F. Guffey, of Pittsburgh, seeking a third term. If Pennsylvania falls into the Republican column this year, many leaders believe that it would be an added selling point to gain a position for Governor Martin on the GOP national ticket.

The governor's age would be against him for the presidential nomination. The GOP, some leaders have explained, should slate a younger man as the presidential standard-bearer. Governor Martin's political record—election to three high state offices in three starts—and his participation in five wars would be a fine asset to the GOP ticket. Republican state leaders have pointed out, in addition, by the time of the Republican national convention in 1948, Governor Martin, as a U. S. Senator, would have had ample time to gain national prominence.

The Republican state campaign committee has distributed small booklets listing the GOP candidates in Pennsylvania and containing histories of the four state-wide nominees. In addition, the booklet contains statements from the four candidates. By far the shortest declaration is that of Attorney General James H. Duff, gubernatorial nominee. "I feel that I can be depended upon for common sense as a governor and for a fair deal and a fair opportunity to be heard by every citizen," Duff said. Big Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, of Lancaster, nominated for lieutenant governor, emphasized the importance of electing veterans to public office. "The preservation of the American way of life can best be entrusted to those who have offered their lives to preserve it," Strickler said.

Thirteen of the 33 Republican congressional candidates are incumbents while another nominee, James E. Van Zandt of Altoona, is a former congressman. Incumbents were Charles L. Gerlach, of Allentown; Ivor D. Fenton, of Mahonoy City; Wilson D. Gillette, Towanda; Robert E. Rich of Woolrich; Samuel K. McConnell, Jr., South Ardmore; Richard M. Simpson, of Huntington; John C. Kunkle, of Harrisburg; Leon H. Gavin, of Oil City; Chester H. Gross, of York; Louis E. Graham, of Beaver; Harvey Tibbott, of Ebensburg; Robert Conwell, Bellefonte; and James G. Fullerton, of Pittsburgh.

Landlords' Union Raps OPA Controls

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 18.—(INS)—OPA rent controls were under fire from the Landlords' Union today in Lackawanna county court.

Sitting en banc, the court was scheduled to hear argument today on the union's petition to restrain the price control agency from interfering with rentals specified in leases. The union has contended that OPA regulations infringe upon the validity of contracts.

The OPA has requested the court to dismiss the suit. A decision was not expected to be returned immediately. A victory for the union probably would pave the way for similar suits against OPA rent ceilings and the ultimate collapse of controls.

SHOW MUST GO ON

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(INS)—The tradition of the stage, "The show must go on" was extended today to the opera.

Baritone Arthur Newman fell and broke his arm during a mock duel in the last act of "La Boheme" in the City Center. He regained his feet and continued singing for 15 minutes until his exit on his regular cue.

YWCA Has Active Role In Civic Life

One Of Chest Agencies, "Y" Has Place For Women Of All Races, Creeds

"Everybody benefits—everybody gives" is the slogan of the Community Chest this year. "A more abundant life" for women and girls of all races and creeds is the way the Y. W. C. A. says the same thing.

The New Castle "Y," one of 434 city associations in the United States, has 12 rooms for permanent guests, five beds for transients and a long waiting list. To take care of the many girls who must have a room in order to get a job, there is a YWCA rooms registry where homes in the community are listed.

Travelers Aid, for persons who are stranded and who need help in finding their relatives, is another of the personal services one might need.

Democracy in action in the YWCA provided inter-racial opportunities on "Y" committees, councils, classes, and boards, while the International Institute is providing opportunities for foreign-born Americans to become affiliated with other Americans of different nationality backgrounds. This fall a citizenship training class is open to men and women on Monday evenings, and a class for war brides is provided on Tuesday afternoons.

World fellowship and international understanding have been demonstrated by the packing of more than 40 large boxes of clothing for the "Y" in Italy, Belgium, Holland, Czechoslovakia and Manila, and the sending of money and food. Local members will also help with the two million dollar reconstruction fund for the rebuilding of European Chinese and Philippine "Y's."

Teen-age girls are organizing larger and more enthusiastic clubs this year than ever, and two clubs for business girls are planning stimulating programs. One thousand seven hundred and thirty-four persons belong to the New Castle YWCA. Outside of this city, in addition to the 434 city associations, this country has 559 county associations. In other parts of the world, the "Y" is active in 69 countries.

Nuernburg Trial Effort Justified, President Asserts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(INS)—President Truman said today that the precedent set at the Nuernburg war criminals trial "abundantly justifies the expenditure of effort".

Mr. Truman's assertion was made in accepting the resignation of Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson as the representative of the United States and chief counsel of the war crimes tribunal.

The president said:

"I am convinced that the verdict for which you worked will receive the accolade of 'civilized' people everywhere and will stand in history as a beacon to warn international brigands of the fate that awaits them."

This precedent becomes basic in the international law of the future. The principles established and the results established place international law on the side of peace as against aggressive warfare."

Mr. Truman said he would give "careful consideration" to Jackson's recommendation that industrialists, politicians and police officials of Germany should be brought to justice specifically through trials held by individual occupying countries rather than an international court.
